LAWMAKERS IN HARD PRACTICE

Are Not Discouraged by the Slightest Because of the Defeat of Monday.

PLAY BALTIMOREANS AGAIN

To Give the Eastern State League a Stiff Game—Will Also Play the Spiders.

Base-ball is all the talk nowadays, and on all sides the initiates are discussing the various merits of the men who compose the present body of the Lawmakers and speculating as to which of them will leave to work for the pennant for the capital city. As yet much speculation is being indulged in, but it is neither more or less fruitless, as the manager is himself undecided as to who will do the honors for Richmond. There is little choice between the men, as all are working their fingers to the bone to secure the much coveted positions on the Lawmakers' line.

Will Play Again.
After the defeat of Monday, in which, however, the Lawmakers put up a stiff game, considering that it was their first game and the fact that they had had little practice, the men went out for their practice yesterday morning with renewed effort and zeal, and performed some brilliant stunts with the willow and in handling the hot ones skidding over the ground or sent sailing into the corners.

In the afternoon the Lawmakers held themselves to Forest Hill Park, as the followers of the Crimson occupied the Broad Street Park. There they spent the afternoon in hard, fast practice, all the men showing up well.

The Lawmakers will cross bats again next Saturday with the team from Baltimore of the Eastern State League, captained by Hugh Jennings. By then the home leaguers will have gotten down to more scientific ball, and Manager Shaffer has hopes of this time sending the Baltimoreans down the line.

With the increasing interest in the great sport in local circles it is expected that there will be a repetition of the large crowd that graced the grand stand and bleachers last Monday, and there is not the slightest doubt felt that base-ball here is going to pay, and pay well.

To Meet Richmond College.
On the Monday following the Lawmakers will go up against the Spiders, who are preparing to give the professionals something more than a little pastime and practice.

With the addition of Joe Cuddy, who recently arrived to practice with the Lawmakers, there will be something hot in the way of competition for the man who is to grace the second sack, as heretofore "Pug" Hicks has been the only applicant for that honor.

The wedding process, to which every man looks forward with more or less uncertainty, will soon begin, so that the team will be within the salary limit by the first of June.

Cherokees Win Again.
The Cherokees defeated the sixth grade team of Madison School yesterday by a score of 10 to 8.

The score by innings is as follows:

SUTTON BREAKS
WORLD'S RECORD

Hoppe Badly Beaten in Remarkable and Exciting Game in Madison Square Garden.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, April 17.—The shortest and most exciting game of the world's championship 18-2 billiard tournament was played in Madison Square Garden last night, in a match with Jacob Shaffer, of Chicago, eighteen months ago in Paris. The game lasted one hour and thirty-five minutes, and was in striking contrast to the game in which Shaffer defeated Cutler, of Boston, this afternoon. The contest lasted through thirty-four innings, and the final score was—Sutton, 30; Cutler, 348.

The highest run of the tournament previous to to-night was 18, and Sutton made it, but he outclassed this with 21 unfinished to-night.

The biggest run on record in 18-2 billiard was 35, made by Louis Cure, of France, in a match with Jacob Shaffer, of Chicago, eighteen months ago in Paris. The game lasted one hour and thirty-five minutes, and was in striking contrast to the game in which Shaffer defeated Cutler, of Boston, this afternoon. The contest lasted through thirty-four innings, and the final score was—Sutton, 30; Cutler, 348.

Harvard will probably have the following:

Virginia Makes it Two Straight Games Against the Bethlehemites.

ALLOWED ONLY THREE HITS

Bason Did Fine Short-Stopping For Leigh—Woodson Star For Virginia.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., April 17.—By winning to-day's game, 6 to 2, Virginia made it two straight from Leigh, Susong, who defeated both Yale and Pennsylvania, was in the box for the Bethlehemites, and held the Bethlehemites safe all stages of the game. But three hits were made off his delivery, and two of these were of the scratch order.

Barker, who tried for Leigh, received excellent support, the support, the splendid work of Bason at short being in marked contrast to his exhibition on yesterday. He scooped up everything that came his route, and was loudly applauded for gathering in Walker's hot liner in the seventh. Musselman put up a start game at bat. The second run, scored two runs in the second inning. After Woodson and Johnson had singled, both counted on Susong's slashing line drive to center, which Uptegrove allowed to get away from him. Walker and Dalton started up the third inning by getting safe singles, and not being felled by Woodson's searing hit to left field. One run was made in the fourth and another in the seventh. Leigh sent one man across the plate in the seventh. Munro walked, went to second on a wild pitch, to third on an out, and counted on Bason's scratch hit.

In the eighth inning, was due to Susong's error of judgment in trying to catch a runner at second, with Uptegrove on third and two hands down.

For Virginia, Woodson put up a star game in field and at bat. Rice made a brilliant catch of a high fly back of first. Walker secured three nice hits.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
STANTON, VA., April 17.—One of the largest crowds that ever gathered at Athletic Park witnessed the game to-day between Western Maryland College and the Stanton Military Academy, in which the Stanton team defeated the Marylanders 10 to 2.

The features of the game were the home runs by Mike Shields and Clarence Campman, of the home team. The visiting team made quite a kick against Mr. Krebs and Mr. Shields, claiming that Krebs and Mr. Shields were cheating. Krebs is coach for the Virginia Military Institute and a professional player, and that Mr. Shields was a professional player.

Campman, of the home team, also had a two-bagger to his credit.
